GENTRY PACIFIC

DESIGN CENTER

Inspirations for Creative Living
D cor and Expertise for the Home

Gentry Pacific Design Center is one of Honolulu's one-stop centers for premium home furnishings, and home design, renovation and construction expertise. Conveniently located in downtown Honolulu, the design center itself makes a strong design statement with its art deco architecture from the 1930's. Shelley Morisaki, the Property Manager and Director of Marketing, engaged with Mana Brand Marketing for a complete branding program, one that better reflected the brand: that is, the inspirational and progressive style, designs and services provided through the Center. The program included core brand identity, business cards, business papers, envelopes, brand and product labels, note card, print ads, email signature, building signs, and website branding.

"I was referred to WavenDean and Mana by one of my tenants. As I had previously retained a public relations company to coordinate the advertising for the Gentry Pacific Design Center, I wasn't sure what to expect. Originally I had retained Mana to redesign the ads for Gentry but I was so impressed that we also retained Mana to design a new logo and tagline. The new ad, logo and tag lines reflect perfectly the Gentry Pacific Design Center. The process has been enjoyable and easy and the results incredible!"
